

Contract Summary

Architect-Engineer CERCLA/RCRA Environmental Engineering Support at Navy and Marine Corps Installations within the NAVFAC SW AOR, NAVFAC Atlantic AOR, and DoD Installations Nationwide

Contracting Agency
NAVFAC Southwest

Contract No.
N62473-23-D-2217

Prime Contractor
Trevet-NOREAS JV, LLC

Agency Contact
Joshua Mentink, Contracting Officer, (619) 705-5412, Joshua.m.mentink@us.navy.mil

Contract Ceiling
$95 million

Prime Contractor Contact

Robert Breglio, P.G., Program Manager, (619) 733-8538, bob@trevetinc.com

Team Member Subcontractors

Aptim Federal Services, AECOM, Geosyntec Consultants, InDepth Corporation

Ordering Period End Date
September 2028

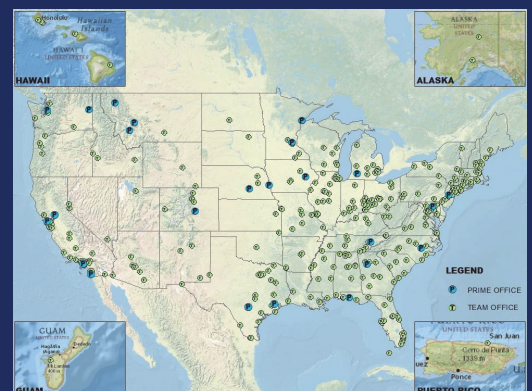

Scope of Work

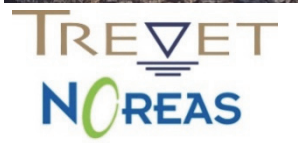

- | | | |
|----------------|-------------------|---|
| Studies | Consultations | Human Health and Ecological Risk Assessments |
| Investigations | Conceptual Design | Pilot or Treatability Projects / Innovative Technologies |
| Evaluations | Value Engineering | Operation, Monitoring, Optimization of Environmental Treatment or Control Systems |

Typical work includes environmental studies, investigations, engineering, geology, and scientific assistance to support ER,N program and similar requirements to complete CERCLA, RCRA, ASTs/USTs, Low Level Radiological Program, MMRP, BRAC, and other environmental compliance projects incidental to CERCLA/RCRA studies and cleanup.

- Prime JV offices nationwide, seven in the NAVFAC SW AOR
- 71 team offices in NAVFAC SW AOR
- Over 17,000 personnel nationwide, 4,294 in the NAVFAC SW AOR
- A small business JV, and self-performing prime contractor with direct experience at 32 NAVFAC SW facilities in the AOR
- Trevet and NOREAS CPARS are 88% and 79% “Exceptional” and “Very Good” over the past 5 years.

“The Contractor’s deliverables were of exceptional quality and exhibited a detailed understanding of the various regulatory agency and guidance documents pertaining to this CTO.” -NAVFAC RPM

Contract Summary

Indefinite Quantity Architect Engineer Contract for Environmental Restoration Projects at Various Activities under Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command Northwest, Silverdale, Washington

Contracting Agency
NAVFAC Northwest

Agency Contact
Kimberly A. Gillette, Lead Contract Specialist/Contracting Office, (564) 252-7659, kimberly.a.gillette4.civ@us.navy.mil

Contract No.
N44255-26-D-0008

Contract Ceiling
$45 million

Ordering Period End Date
January 2032

Prime Contractor
Trevet-NOREAS JV, LLC

Prime Contractor Contact
Robert Breglio, P.G., Program Manager, (619) 733-8538, bob@trevetinc.com

Team Member Subcontractors
EA Engineering, Science, and Technology, Inc. and Jacobs Engineering Group

Scope of Work

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| ■ CERCLA Preliminary Assessment / Site Inspection | ■ CERCLA Proposed Plan / Record of Decision | ■ CERCLA Remedial Action |
| ■ RCRA Facility Assessment | ■ RCRA Statement of Basis / Corrective Action Implementation Order | ■ RCRA Corrective Measures Implementation |
| ■ CERCLA Remedial Investigation | ■ CERCLA Remedial Design | ■ CERCLA & RCRA Long-Term Monitoring and Environmental Treatment System Optimization |
| ■ RCRA Facility Investigation | ■ RCRA Corrective Action Implementation Plan | ■ CERCLA & RCRA Site Closure |
| ■ CERCLA Feasibility Study | | |
| ■ RCRA Corrective Measures Study | | |

Projects focus on environmental compliance, planning, studies, and natural resources restoration, and other related activities addressing metals, chlorinated compounds, PFAS, explosives, petroleum, low-level radiological isotopes, and emerging contaminants.

- A JV integrating two SBs' resources and capabilities of since 2008
- 22 team offices in NAVFAC NW AOR, and 148 nationwide
- Over 110,550 technical personnel nationwide, 1,660 in the NAVFAC NW AOR
- A SB JV team with direct experience at 14 NAVFAC NW facilities in the AOR
- Trevet and NOREAS CPARS are 88% and 79% "Exceptional" and "Very Good" over the past 5 years.

"The Contractor has provided exceptional management of resources and personnel ... Workmanship was of superior quality." -NAVFAC RPM

